

Summer Institute Scholarship Application

This application must be received or postmarked no later than Saturday, March 3, 2012.

The Barcel Suzuki String Academy is offering a full tuition (class fee) scholarship to assist students attending an SAA approved Suzuki institute in the summer of 2012. The scholarship will be paid directly to the institute for the purpose of tuition assistance. The scholarship committee will make its decision based on the Suzuki literature level of the student, the narrative statements, and the student's commitment to instrument study, group lessons and the Barcel Suzuki String Academy.

One full tuition (class fee) scholarship will be given per category: violin books 1-2, books 3-4, books 5-6, books 7-8 and above. One partial tuition scholarship will be offered for a chamber program covering a little more than one-half of the class fee.

Eligibility:

- Applicant must be between the ages of 4 and 18.
- Applicant must have participated regularly in group lessons for at least one year.
- Applicant and parent must be willing to share information about the institute experience via a newsletter article or presentation at a Barcel parent meeting.
- Applicant and family must have actively participated in the scholarship fundraising efforts of the Barcel Suzuki String Academy.

Application procedure

- Fill out application form.
- Write a narrative statement and submit with application by due date.

Narrative statement by applicant and parent is to include the following.

- Why are you applying for the scholarship?
- Why do you wish to attend or return to the institute?
- What do you expect to learn from the institute experience?

The scholarship committee will announce its decision the week of March 26, 2012
