

"An unlimited amount of ability can develop when parent and child are having fun together." – Dr. Suzuki

The Big Picture

Share one moment of joy you experienced with your child/ren this year during your violin journey.

What inspires your child/ren's violin playing? How can you and I help to create more inspirational opportunities?

What are the goals for your child/ren's progress and violin development this year?

What positive change have you seen with your child/ren or yourself during this past year? What has caused the change?

Dear teacher, I could really use some new ideas with...

Ingredients for Success
