

Name: _____

Student & Teacher Conference

Every part of the "Magic Circle" is vital to enjoying and learning to play the violin. As an independent practicer take a look at each part of the "Magic Circle" and discover its potential.

	What are you doing currently?	What is your goal for this year?	What are you going to change to reach your goal?
Daily Listening
Confidence What thoughts or attitudes do I want to change to be more positive?
Daily Practice Recommended practice length: Lesson time plus half
Ability What skills do you want to improve?
Success/Mastery What repertoire do you want to master?

★ Has there been a positive change in practice, listening, or review since last conference? If yes, what do you attribute the change to?

★ How do you define progress in your violin learning?

Are you satisfied with your progress? _____ If not, why not? Do you want to change? How can I help?

★ How do your parents define progress in your violin learning?

Do you think your parents are satisfied with your progress? Explain

★ Do you think I, as your teacher, feel you are making steady positive progress?

★ How do you feel about the following & what do you learn from each?
Private Lessons:

Group Lessons:

Playing out:

Recitals:

★ Are your lesson assignments clear to you? _____ How do you break down your daily practice?

Is there any way I can help improve your daily practice?

★ As you look toward high school/college, how do you see music fitting into your high school/college life?

Are you interested in what playing opportunities exist post high school?

After all that's been said, one last thing I'd like to tell you...